WLDAS

The Specialist Link Worker will work closely with the existing Young Person's Worker within the Therapeutic Support Service delivered by WLDAS which provides trauma informed psychological interventions to young people with dependent or problematic substance use issues
This role will have focus on training, consultation, information sessions and a rapid assessment approach, building capacity across the established teams in West Lothian who provide support to families. The SLW will carry a caseload providing psychological interventions and help young people and families engage with other treatment services.

Contact: enquiries@wldas.org

WLYAP

The Youth Workers will carry caseloads providing 1-1 interventions and a diversionary approach to assist young people to make well informed and positive life choices. They will also develop strong supportive relationships with the whole family.
The workers will also deliver groupwork and early intervention and prevention education sessions as part of the partnership, improving knowledge and reducing the risk of harmful substance use amongst young people.
